Values

- Value 1: Greater trust and understanding: Establish, improve and increase (dominant culture's recognition of) cross-cultural relationships in order to humanize one another
- Value 2: Community capacity and health: multi-faceted, multi-layered authentic community response to trauma
- Value 3: Shared decision-making: Get the work done in a way that reflects real power, buy-in, and leadership from community

The Work

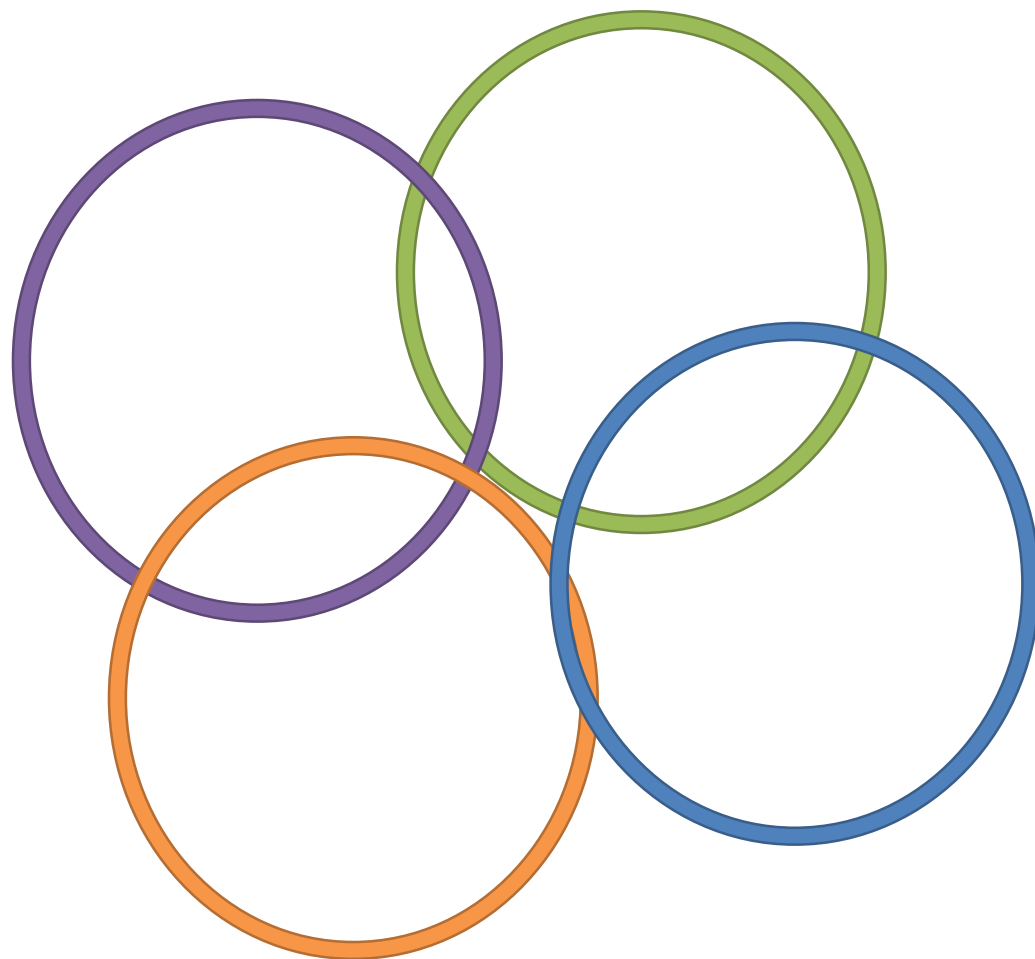

Shared Decision Making

Critical Incident Response:

- Providing services to community when bad things happen – Officer Yanez Verdict, Charges Against Officer Noor, Shooting of Thurman Blevins
- Longer term strategies
- Brave/Safe conversations for City Staff

#BLACKJOY

- Normalize mental health and self-care
- Black body trauma response
- Historical trauma
- Secondary trauma
- Self-care

Healing and Training

- History of Race Projects:
 - Immigrant/Refugee Mural Project - El Camino Del Corazon (South)
 - Plymouth/Penn Corridor Oral History Project
- Capacity Building Institute for Community Members
- Internal Staff Capacity Building and Training
